

Students who are interested in gaining course credit for their volunteering are eligible to enroll in TMC 198. TMC 198 students complete 50 hours per quarter of service as either classroom or non-classroom interns. Classes are conducted as small seminars in which students discuss their experiences at site, critically analyze relevant topics in research and media, and learn from experts in the field through guest presentations and workshops in best practices.

TMC 198 Overview

- 4 units for weekly lectures and 5 hours/week volunteer hours
- Fulfills Upper Division Disciplinary Breadth requirement for Marshall College
- Small evening seminar once a week

How to Enroll in TMC 198

1. Apply for a volunteer or internship position using the school-specific application links on website
2. Print and fill out a [Special Studies Form \[PDF\]](#)
3. Bring the form to the Marshall Administration Building (Map)
4. Turn completed form into the Registrar's Office (Map)
5. Enroll online using WebReg

If you are interested in enrolling for TMC 198, please email Brianna Nelson at bnelson@ucsd.edu