THURGOOD MARSHALL COLLEGE
Returning 2012-2013 Resident Advisor Application

The Thurgood Marshall College Office of Residential Life will employ 19 Resident Advisors (RAs) during the 2012-2013 academic year. Current RAs who wish to apply should follow the application procedures described below.

Application:

Please answer the first five questions in bullet list form as they are needed to be read and easily understood at a glance. Please type your responses.

1. Name, PID, current building, email, phone...
2. As of Sept. 2012, tell us the amount of time you have attended UCSD in months and years.
3. Please note your anticipated graduation month and year.
4. What are your anticipated plans August 29, 2012-June 15, 2013 (i.e., Academics, personal, clubs/organizations, job, internships, standardized tests for graduate school/certification, etc.)?
5. Projected summer address and summer phone.

Please answer the remaining questions under each question in paragraph or bullet form. Do not merge your answers into one essay. Please type your responses.

1. What notable contributions have you made to our Residential Life program as an RA this year?
2. Now that you’ve been in the RA position for an entire quarter, what have you learned about yourself?
3. What would you do differently next year?
4. What do you think you will personally contribute to the staff team and our Residential Life program during a second year?
5. Please describe your understanding of the “Know yourself. Check yourself. Be yourself.” Res Life mission/philosophy? How do you incorporate it into your day to day work as an RA at Marshall College?
6. Other than the fact that as a second year RA you would have a new building, new residents, and a new staff group, how do you envision staying engaged, and keeping your energy and balance throughout a second year—in other words how do you currently avoid burn out in this very demanding role?
7. How would you challenge yourself to be more creative in your work and role modeling as a returning RA?
8. Role modeling healthy communication and how to navigate conflict directly is a major expectation of returning RAs. Please share an example of how you have been successful in this area, preferably with your peer RAs.
9. As a returning RA we will be including you in planning and facilitating RA training. What qualifications do you have that would contribute to a specific training topics. Are there any particular topics you would be interested in?
Presentation:
We ask that you prepare a presentation in order for you to express your motivation for seeking a 2nd year in the RA position. The presentation should be reflective of your creativity and incorporate parts of who you are that haven’t been expressed yet through the interview or your application.

- We expect you to be thoughtful in your planning and presentation.
- This is a professional opportunity, so it is a good idea treat it as such and prepare accordingly.
- Your presentation should be no longer than 10 minutes.
- Please bring 3 copies of your presentation content to the interview.
- If you need any additional equipment, i.e. computer, TV, utensils, etc., please let the Admin Assistant (Jimmy Smith) know at least 24 hours prior to your interview.

Immediately following the presentation there will be 20 minutes remaining for us to interview you, and you will have the opportunity to ask us questions at the end. In answering the interview questions, please be prepared to reflect upon your current and past leadership experience, professional development, and social development. Please also think about in which residential area (Residence Halls, Uppers apts, Lower apts) you think you would excel working in and be prepared to share that and help us understand why.
