

Ombuds Office

om•buds or om•buds•man \ (äm-büdz) (äm-büdz-mən) \ noun:

1. completely confidential place to discuss issues or concerns
2. offers options for resolution
3. may informally inquire about situations to help facilitate resolutions

- Good Starting Point for Any Kind of Conflict
- Grade Disputes
- Housing/Roommate Issues
- Communication Problems with Professors and Other Members of the University
- Policy Questions
- Much More

An alternate channel for confidential, neutral and informal dispute resolution services for the entire UCSD community

UCSD Main Campus Office

858-534-0777

www.ombuds.ucsd.edu