

WRITING EXERCISE # 3

Due in Lecture Monday of Week 4 (10/22)

For Writing Exercise #3, apply what you have learned about summarizing academic arguments (Writing Exercise #1) and referencing and citing borrowed material (Writing Exercise #2). Begin with the argument about race made by Claire Kim and address each part of the assignment:

- 1) In your own words, briefly summarize Kim's argument about race.
- 2) Explain one or two examples she uses to support her claim.
- 3) Select a claim or example from one of the following authors and explain HOW Kim's interpretation of race challenges, expands, or is challenged by that author's analysis:

Haney-Lopez
Waters
Cornelius

Format: 1½ - 2 page essay response, typed, double-spaced, 12-point font
In upper corner, include your name, TA name, section number, and date (Raimes chapter 3f).

Please include the following honor code statement at the end of your assignment, including your signature and the date:

My signature affirms that I have not violated the Thurgood Marshall College Academic Honor Code. _____
