CAPSTONE PROJECT
CREATING AND ANALYZING YOUR CULTURAL TEXT

Due Date
The capstone project (all three components) must be completed by Tuesday, May 30. Students will submit it to their TAs in section Tuesday, May 30 or Wednesday, May 31. The DOC Analysis must be uploaded to Turnitin.com before midnight on May 30. Final Projects submitted late to TAs will have their grades lowered by 1/3 of a letter grade. (This penalty applies to late Turnitin submissions as well.) These grade penalties will increase accordingly for each additional day late. Please be in touch with your TA if you are expecting any problems meeting the deadlines.

Students will follow a 3-step process for this capstone project:

1) Proposal (20 points)
   In less than one typed page (~250 words), describe the project you plan to create. Include descriptions of the medium/platform/genre (see step 2 below), the details that you will include, and what you think the main point of the project will be. Conclude by connecting your project to relevant concepts and materials. Students have until the final deadline to revise/refine their project proposal. NOTE: If working in pairs, only one proposal is needed, but each student still needs to submit a separate AND original analysis (see step 3 below).

2) Your Cultural Object (30 points)
   Your overall goal is to create a project that draws upon the materials, concepts, and method presented in DOC this year and refashions them within an artistic and creative framework.
   Medium/platform/genres (select one from the following activities):
   - Produce a video, website, or some other digital project
   - Record yourself performing a song, a spoken-word poem, or some other kind of performance
   - Write the lyrics to a song or a pair of songs
   - Create a photography portfolio, or some other kind of visual or digital image archive
   - Create a piece of art – or a plan/sketches for a piece of art – such as photographs, a mural, sculptures, statues, or a storyboard for a comic or graphic novel
   - Interview a family member and use her/his memories to reconstruct the context of their life
   - Write an essay, short story, a short reflection piece, or a poem (or series of poems)
   - If you are more comfortable with a medium not included here, please discuss it with your TA.

3) DOC Analysis (50 points)
   In a 2-3 page written exercise, critically analyze your project using tools, relevant readings, and historical context from the DOC sequence. Conclude by reflecting on how your project turned out differently than you expected, and/or what you learned from the process of working on it. NOTE: This section is worth the most points so be sure to present a thoughtful DOC analysis.
Guidelines

- Students may work individually or in pairs, but not in groups of three or more.
- If students elect to work in pairs, the final project should reflect the work of two people or the grade will be reduced.
- TAs must approve all project proposals by end of week 7. Projects that are not approved by TAs in week 7 may have the final project grade reduced.
- If you wish to change your topic at any time, you do not need to write a new proposal, but you must consult with your TA for approval.
- See your TA for questions regarding the appropriate length of written projects (e.g., reflection piece, family narrative, short story, etc.).

NOTE: All written work must be typed, double-spaced, with 1-inch margins, 11 or 12-point font, with an appropriate title and headings.

Timeline

1. Rough draft Proposal (Step 1) – Due in the first section of Week 7. TA will approve your project in the second section of Week 7 OR by email.

2. Workshop a rough draft of your Project in the first section of Week 8. TAs will offer guidance during section.

3. Workshop a rough draft of your written DOC Analysis of your own project (Step 3) – In the second section of Week 8. TAs will offer guidance during section.

4. All three components will be due to your TA in the first section of Week 9. The DOC Analysis must also be submitted to Turnitin.com before midnight May 30.
