ACADEMIC READMISSION APPEAL FORM

Name _____	PID _____
E-mail address _____	Phone # (____) _____
Current Major _____	Expected quarter of graduation _____
Proposed Major _____

In order to be considered for readmission to UC San Diego, you must complete and submit the following to the Thurgood Marshall College Academic Advising Office (Attn: Karen Correa-Fowler) as soon as possible:

1. A quarter-by-quarter graduation plan

You must meet with a major departmental advisor (either your declared or new, proposed major) to develop a realistic quarter-by-quarter graduation plan. This plan must:

- include all remaining graduation requirements (major, GE's, and college)
- be reviewed and signed by your departmental advisor

If you need assistance with planning your GE's and college requirements, please call the TMC Academic Advising Office (858-534-4110) to schedule an appointment.

2. A written academic appeal

Your written appeal (typed, double-spaced; include your name and PID) must address the following:

- Reasons you should be allowed to return to UCSD.
- What has changed to enable you to succeed?
- Clarification of your new academic goals.

3. Unofficial transcripts

You must submit your unofficial transcripts of coursework taken since your academic disqualification from UCSD. These transcripts must demonstrate completion of 24.0 semester or 36.0 quarter UC transferable units with a 3.0 G.P.A. (Remember to send all official transcripts to the UCSD Admissions Office for posting to your academic history on TritonLink.)
